Sex Workers in The Philippines James Whitlow Delano

More pictures available at: www.bildbyransilver.se

The Philippines ranked fourth among nine nations with the most number of children trafficked for prostitution, according to a report by the Consortium Against Trafficking of Children and Women for Sexual Exploitation (Catch-Wise).

It is estimated there are between 60,000 to 100,000 children trafficked into prostitution in the Philippines. Child prostitution has also resulted in snuff movies, with a court case in Belgium showing of a video showing two Filipino boys being raped and murdered, one buried in smokey mountain.

It is estimated that in 1998 there were 400,000 prostituted women in the Philippines.

A majority of the women prostitutes explain their work as necessary to support poor parents, to support siblings or to support husbands or boyfriends.

The New Russia Justin Jin

More pictures available at: www.bildbyransilver.se

From the ashes of the Soviet Union, Russia has again risen to world power status, with money, oil and attitude.

The country has embraced capitalism, flinging its door open to all the luxuries that money can buy.

Yet dark forces remain, and democracy is dead.

This series looks at the winners and losers of Russia's resurgence and asks why people are willing to support Putinism, exchange freedom for wealth, and participate in modern empire-building.

Ninni Sanna Sjöswärd

In January 2006 the National Board of Health and Welfare presented its most recent survey of the scale of homelessness in Sweden.

A total of around 17 800 people were homeless according to this count. This means that homelessness has increased by 2 000–3 000 people since 1999. The proportion of women has also increased.

Ninni Karlsson 42 years old, homeless and drug addict, has been living in a car for five months during the winter in central Västerås, Sweden.

Ninni is not only a criminal, drug addict and homeless woman. She is also a trained nurse, ex. lawstudent and ex. riding-master with her own riding-school.

Ninni Karlsson is also mother to five children and has been living with Peter 44 years old for twenty years.

The car was later confiscated and sent to the junkyard, they lived in a shelter of tarpaulin until they got a caravan from someone.

This is the story about Ninni.
